AI in Schools: Shaping the Future of Education

Presenter: Eric Santos, Regional Educational Technology Coordinator for the Learning Technology Center

Join us for an insightful presentation on the transformative role of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in education. This session will cover the basics of AI, its potential to revolutionize learning, and the pressing need for AI guidance and policy in school districts. We will delve into the ethical, privacy, and legal considerations of AI implementation, and explore how AI is reshaping workforce skills. School board members will gain valuable insights to make informed decisions, protect student interests, and prepare their districts for a future driven by technological advancements.

Please note: Member Awards and Recognition has been moved to the Spring 2025 Division Meeting.
