Program

"The Art of School Boarding"

Jim Burgett, Author and President of The Burgett Group

School Boarding is not a science, nor is it a single player sport. It is, in fact, both an art and a team sport. And just like anything else if you want to do it successfully you have to know what works and what does not. "The Art of School Boarding" shares the ten most common issues, and how to handle "customer complaints" in a way that leads to understanding and growth. This presentation is practical, to the point, and full of solid information.
